

Jen Strobel '95

Jen Strobel '95 is the Vice President of Human Resources for Flagger Force Traffic Control Services, has been recognized by the Associated Builders and Constructors (ABC) Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter as the 2016 Woman of the Year. The awards ceremony was held on September 21, 2016.

"Over the past four years, Flagger Force has provided me the opportunities to grow as a leader and to create programs that continue the conversation about the importance of women working in the construction industry. I am committed to making sure that all of our employees have the tools and opportunities they need to do their job and perform with excellence."