Katy Ferrier '09, '11M
Katy is a two-time graduate from Millersville. She began working at Millersville in the Admissions Office in 2011 as Out-of-State Recruitment Coordinator. Katy is now Millersville University's Director of Undergraduate Admissions where she oversees all undergraduate recruitment.

Katy has a long history with and a passion for...
Millersville University. What Katy likes most about working for her alma mater is that, "I spend a lot of time talking to students about the value of a Millersville education, our academic reputation, and ways they can get involved on campus. What I enjoy is that although many colleges talk about similar points, I have the unique opportunity to share personal stories with them about my time at Millersville. It allows me to make a personal connection with students and families that sets our conversation apart. Students' faces really do light up when I tell them that I majored in what they are interested in, or that I was involved in a club they are considering."

Katy is currently enrolled at Temple in the Doctoral program for Educational Leadership. Her anticipated completion date is summer 2018.

THE BOOK NOOK

Sins of the Father

Ken Cressman '80

"I was in my kitchen making breakfast when the three men broke in and tried to kill me..."

So begins the latest exciting installment in the adventures of David Larkin and his partner Samantha Colt.
Eight years ago, Larkin and Colt were part of a team that terminated notorious drug kingpin Francisco Salazar. Now Salazar's son Ramon has grown up, taken over the family business and sworn his revenge upon them. Their only option is to follow the trail of drugs and bodies backwards, from Virginia to Miami to South America, and find a way to stop young Ramon before they become his latest victims.

Sins of the Father is loaded with the exciting action, wry humor and memorable characters that fans of Larkin and Colt have come to expect.
