“Many people have a wrong idea of what constitutes true happiness. It is not attained through self-gratification but through fidelity to a worthy purpose.”

– Helen Keller

Save the Date
The Women’s Giving Circle at Millersville University is partnering with the Office of Experiential Learning and the Office of Admission to sponsor a mentoring luncheon for first-year undecided students. The event will be held on campus during the fall 2013 semester. Stay tuned for more details.

Visit Us Online
Please visit www.mville.edu/give to learn more about the work of the Women’s Giving Circle at Millersville, watch a video interview with Briana Yeager, the recipient of this year’s WGC scholarship, and find out how to join this dynamic group!

Fast Facts
• In 2013, 37% of women completed at least a bachelor’s degree, compared to men at 50%.
• Female make up 33% of the Baby Boomer generation.
• 47% of businesses in the U.S. are owned by women.
• 21% of businesses in the U.S. are owned by women.

Welcome New WGC Members!
Joining our membership since January 2013, we would like to welcome:

• Bernard Bydell
• Judith Autenreith
• Priscilla Stoner
• Suzanne McDonnell
• Fay Kramer
• Sandra Dresser
• Marjorie Warmkessel

• Lynnette Trout
• Lori Dunfill
• Barbara Weil
• Sondra Easman
• Amy Dmuzik
• Sarah Young-Fisher
• Cathryn Innacona

Upcoming Events
Meet Briana Yeager
www.millersville.edu/give
Field Hockey's Road to Success

When Head Coach Shelly Behrens came to Millersville five years ago, she “saw nothing but positives.” And that is just what the field hockey team has seen since 1998. Behrens led the team to the PSAC Tournament for the first time in 19 years. After falling to West Chester in the championship game, the team finished the season with a 14-7 record.

The excellence does not stop on the field. Senior Maria Thompson was Millersville’s first PSAC Champion Scholar this year. When Head Coach Shelly Behrens came to Millersville five years ago, she “saw nothing but positives.” And that is just what the field hockey team has seen since 1998. Behrens led the team to the PSAC Tournament for the first time in 19 years. After falling to West Chester in the championship game, the team finished the season with a 14-7 record.

Spotlight ON FEMALE ATHLETES

Field Hockey’s Road to Success

Not only do these women do great things on the field and in the classroom, but in the community as well. The team participates in several service projects throughout the school year. Why is this important for the team? Behrens said, “I want them to know that when they leave here, they can go out and achieve anything – that their time as an MU field hockey player has prepared them for the next successful part of their life.” What has made this team so successful these past five years?

The excellence does not stop on the field. Senior Maria Thompson was Millersville’s first PSAC Champion Scholar this year. When Head Coach Shelly Behrens came to Millersville five years ago, she “saw nothing but positives.” And that is just what the field hockey team has seen since 1998. Behrens led the team to the PSAC Tournament for the first time in 19 years. After falling to West Chester in the championship game, the team finished the season with a 14-7 record.

Not only do these women do great things on the field and in the classroom, but in the community as well. The team participates in several service projects throughout the school year. Why is this important for the team? Behrens said, “I want them to know that when they leave here, they can go out and achieve anything – that their time as an MU field hockey player has prepared them for the next successful part of their life.” What has made this team so successful these past five years? Coach Behrens attributes the team’s success to great players, great administrators, and great alumnae who have helped them get to where they are now.