

Millersville University of Pennsylvania Commitment to an Inclusive Community

At Millersville University of Pennsylvania, we hold that an inclusive community is a core value that is an essential part of the foundation for our community. Millersville is firmly committed to supporting and advancing the diversity of its campus community. We see diversity as being a characteristic of the community and all its constituents. We believe that the University is enhanced by fostering a diverse community of students, faculty, staff and friends. It is part of the University's mission to provide its members with the skills, awareness, and understanding of different backgrounds that are necessary to cultivate a diverse and inclusive community.

To that end, Millersville University of Pennsylvania, within its authority, further commits to fostering an environment that is inclusive and respectful of all people, and expects equal and non-hostile treatment of any person or group by all on the basis of: race or ethnicity; gender; sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression; campus status (i.e., student, faculty, or staff); marital status; parental status; pregnancy; descriptive linguistics; age; religion or belief system; political beliefs; disability; socioeconomic status; national background or origin; appearance; or veteran status.
