

MATH 319: Calculus and Actuarial Problem Solving 1 s.h.

An extension and synthesis of the calculus sequence that provides students with the problem-solving skills emphasized in such examinations as the Society of Actuaries Exam 1. Does not count as an upper-division elective for the mathematics major or minor. Offered in spring.

Prereq: C- or higher in MATH 311.