

MATH 472: 3 s.h. Financial Mathematics II

Develops knowledge of the theoretical basis of actuarial models and the application of those models to insurance and other financial risks. Pricing formulas for forwards, futures, and options are developed and used in financial strategies designed to reduce risk.

Prereq: C- or better in MATH 335 or MATH 333 and C- or better in MATH 372.